

TPC Junior Golf Performance Camps

TPC Jr. Golf Camps are the area's premier camps for boys and girls ages 6-13 designed for both beginners and intermediate players. What sets our camps apart includes: high quality instruction led by PGA Professionals, daily TPI based fitness, extensive rules and etiquette with testing and new for 2016 on course supervised play on our final day. Our mission is to encourage friendship and sportsmanship and spark a passion of a game they can grow to love and play the rest of their lives.

The TPC Jr. Golf Camp is led by Director of Instruction Bryan Stevens along with TPC's professional staff and local collegiate players.

The Curriculum

TPC Junior Golf Camps are designed to be fun, competitive and challenging and will include the following material:

Full Swing – Juniors will not only learn fundamentals such as grip, posture, alignment, balance and ball position, but will come away with an understanding of key positions in the swing (takeaway, top of backswing, impact and finish).

Short Game – In addition to learning basic techniques for chipping, pitching, putting and bunker play, your junior will participate in a variety of fun short game drills and competitions they can continue using after camp.

TPI Fitness – The focus of these daily fitness sessions is to develop speed, balance, strength, coordination and core stabilization required of high performance golfers. Juniors will have FUN building their athleticism to compete in today's game of power golf.

Playing the Game – Rules, Golf Terminology, Etiquette and basics on playing on the course are covered in a fun environment. We will also spend our last day on the golf course playing with the pro's!
